Overview

Spring Creek Church (springcreekonline.com) is eager to welcome an energized, high capacity leader as their next Life Groups and Mission Pastor. This is a rare opportunity for an experienced pastor with a passion for discipleship and mission to join a healthy, vital team in order to grow participation, maximize potential, multiply leaders and take two key ministries to the next level.

The Big Idea

As a vibrant and healthy church that touches the lives of thousands, the time is right to press into the opportunity to further develop, strengthen and solidify the foundation that is present in the ministries of Life Groups and Mission. Both ministries are calling for a relationally gifted pastor who will take initiative to get to know the people, assess the current strengths, craft a plan for increased engagement, measure effectiveness, develop potential, and celebrate results. Leaders and volunteers look forward to a pastoral leader who will care about them and invest in them so that the ministries flourish and lives are transformed. The Spring Creek team is made up of self-motivated, hard-working, high capacity, theologically intelligent pastors. Drama doesn't linger here and neither does laziness. The next Life Groups and Mission Pastor will enter into an environment where responsibilities and expectations are made clear so the spirit of camaraderie, generosity, loving support and empowerment can thrive.
