

Overview

An excellent opportunity awaits at Church at the Crossing (CATC) (www.golove.org) in Indianapolis, IN for a passionate Student Pastor to elevate this ministry to the next level. This new Student Pastor will have the opportunity to take the solid foundation that exists and build on it so more students can know and love Jesus.

The Big Idea

CATC is viewing this Student Pastor opportunity as a critical hire wanting to see the ministry grow both in participation and spiritual depth so more students come to know Jesus and deepen their knowledge and walk with Him. CATC looks forward to welcoming an outgoing, relational and motivated Student Pastor to build on the foundational strengths of the ministry to make an even greater Kingdom impact on the future. The students who participate in the ministry are talented and interested, but are hungry for inspirational leadership. They want to be discipled and utilized. Casting vision, timely and systemic communication and follow through will be key components of catalyzing the ministry and creating an energizing atmosphere. The ministry has an amazing facility, a building called the Haverstick. It is spacious and a fun place to congregate, complete with coffee shop. Infusing direction and fun into the ministry will not only keep students coming back each week but motivate them to invite their friends to participate.

The Church

Affiliation: Church of God – Anderson (www.jesusisthesubject.org)

Attendance: 1,050

Student Ministry, ages 5th – 12 grade, meets on Sunday mornings during the 11:15 a.m. service.

About: CATC has developed into a regional church, with a beautiful campus that is entirely debt free.

People have responded to the engaging worship and quality Biblical teaching that is offered week in and week out. Church attendance has increased, even during COVID. CATC is a community that is experiencing new life and is on the rise!

The Candidate

The right candidate for Church at the Crossing is someone who is relationally minded, loves working with students and will bring an infusion of energy to the ministry. With a warm, upbeat and positive personality, this individual will authentically model a vibrant Christ-filled life. Friendly, approachable and engaging, the ideal candidate will make a positive impression on students and adults alike, creating a ministry environment that draws participation. Student Ministry needs clear direction and innovation. It needs the investment of a passionate, creative and committed leader who understands how to strategize, prioritize and develop the ministry into a vibrant, attractional space and experience that consistently draws in students. The incoming pastor will take the time to get to know the ministry and its students, determine priorities and ensure volunteers and students are on the same page.

The Location

Located on the northern edge of Indianapolis tucked just inside the I-465 beltway, CATC draws attenders from a variety of communities, backgrounds and evangelical traditions and is strategically located between the city of Indianapolis and the growing northern suburbs of Carmel, Fishers and Zionsville. With active communities, quality schools and abundant resources in every direction, it's no wonder this area is consistently rated as one of the best places to live!

The Qualifications

Passion for Jesus and for ministry to students; Bachelor's degree required; Master's degree a plus; Ability to have fun while working hard; Energetic; High EQ; Talented teacher; Spiritually mature and emotionally stable; Demonstrated capacity to manage staff and volunteers.

Next Steps

Please submit your information to:

Jamie Sipsma

NL Moore & Associates

jamie@nlmoore.com

410.262.8313

For the full Opportunity Profile
CLICK HERE