

TEACHING PASTOR Crossland Community Church

Overview

Crossland Community Church in Bowling Green, KY is seeking a gifted and experienced leader to serve as its next Teaching Pastor. He will join a capable, collaborative and community-oriented staff team, playing a meaningful role in shaping the spiritual life of the church and advancing its vision for transformation and impact. This is a compelling opportunity to teach, lead and serve within a vibrant ministry environment that is passionate about reaching people and making disciples.

The Big Idea

Crossland Community Church is a dynamic, pastor-led and elder-governed, conservative evangelical congregation within the Southern Baptist Convention experiencing strong momentum and growth. With three campuses in Bowling Green, Morgantown and Glasgow, KY, a staff of 26, and a $4.3 million budget, Crossland operates with a fast-paced, missionally-focused culture and expanding regional influence. The church has celebrated more than 550 baptisms in the past two years and is currently outgrowing its facilities, reflecting numerical growth and gospel impact. Doctrinally, Crossland holds a convictional, conservative theology rooted in the authority and sufficiency of Scripture, affirming complementarian theology while actively valuing and equipping women in ministry. The church holds a premillennial view of the end times, affirms a literal six-day creation, and addresses cultural and moral issues when Scripture speaks clearly. Crossland is a multiplying, outward-facing church with a clear commitment to evangelism, discipleship and the faithful proclamation of God's Word.

The Church

Affiliation: SBC

Attendance: 2,500 (adults and children)

About: Crossland offers contemporary worship across multiple services at its three campuses in Bowling Green, Glasgow and Morgantown, creating accessible environments designed to engage people at every stage of life. Each campus provides strong children's and youth ministry programming, coupled with a vibrant outreach focus that reflects the church's commitment to reaching its communities and developing the next generation of disciples.

The Candidate

Crossland Community Church is seeking a Teaching Pastor who walks closely with Jesus, prays fervently, and listens to the Holy Spirit. This Teaching Pastor will serve in a central preaching and discipleship role on the senior leadership team, helping shape the church's preaching vision, contributing to a long-range preaching calendar, and preaching regularly with sermons streamed across all campuses. The role also provides leadership for church-wide discipleship pathways, integrating sermon-based teaching with scalable tools and systems to foster spiritual growth and clear next steps. Designed as a potential soft-succession pathway toward the Senior Pastor role over time, this position offers meaningful responsibility, relational trust and significant influence within a highly collaborative, fast-paced and supportive ministry culture. The ideal candidate is a humble, initiative-taking team player who thrives in dynamic environments, communicates clearly, moves ideas into action and wholeheartedly shares Crossland's mission, values and forward-looking vision.

The Location

Bowling Green is a thriving, fast-growing city where opportunity and quality of life intersect. With national recognition for its strong business climate, excellent schools and vibrant community, the city offers a welcoming environment for families and young professionals. Its blend of small-city warmth, economic vitality and forward-thinking growth makes Bowling Green a wonderful setting for an incoming pastor and family to call home.
